NATICK RESIDENT, TAUNTON ATTORNEY APPOINTED CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION SECTION

Natick resident Kathy Jo Cook has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as the chair of the association's Judicial Administration Section. Cook practices at Kechen & Mallen PC, in Taunton, where she concentrates on civil litigation, including construction accidents, products liability and medical negligence.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Judicial Administration Section, one of 15, serves to promote the fair and efficient administration of justice within courts of the commonwealth. With members from both bench and bar, the section monitors the Trial Court and supports proposals for more efficient use of court resources.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
