NEWTON RESIDENT, WELLESLEY ATTORNEY APPOINTED CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S LAW PRACTICE MANAGEMENT SECTION

Newton resident Alan J. Klevan has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as the chair of the association's Law Practice Management Section. Klevan practices at Klevan & Klevan LLP in Wellesley, where he concentrates on workers' compensation, general negligence and music law.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Law Practice Management Section, one of 15, serves to assist member in sustaining an efficient, ethical and fulfilling law practice by sponsoring continuing education programs that counsel attorneys on how to start and continue to operate successful business, including areas of case management, technology and client selection and retention.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
