WEST NEWTON RESIDENT, BOSTON ATTORNEY APPOINTED CO-CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S PROBATE LAW SECTION

West Newton resident Edward Notis-McConarty has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as co-chair of the association's Probate Law Section. Notis-McConarty has been a partner at Boston's Hemenway & Barnes since 1985, where he has concentrated his practice in the areas of probate litigation, commercial litigation, dispute resolution and fiduciary work.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Probate Law Section, one of 15, concentrates on legal and practical issues in the areas of estate planning, elder law and probate administration and litigation. Section members are involved in Probate Court procedures; shaping legislation and practice methods that update and improve practice areas.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
