AVON RESIDENT, BOSTON ATTORNEY APPOINTED CO-CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S PUBLIC LAW SECTION

Avon resident Michele E. Randazzo has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. to a second term as co-chair of the association's Public Law Section. Randazzo is a principal at the Boston office of Kopelman & Paige PC.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Public Law Section, one of 15, serves as a forum for discussion and education concerning practice as a government lawyer and as a private attorney representing, dealing with, or practicing before government agencies.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
