SOMERVILLE RESIDENT, BOSTON ATTORNEY APPOINTED CO-CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S LABOR & EMPLOYMENT LAW SECTION

Somerville resident Catherine E. Reuben has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as co-chair of the association's Labor & Employment Law Section. Reuben practices at Robinson & Cole LLP, in Boston, where she concentrates on labor & employment law and litigation.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Labor & Employment Law Section, one of 15, serves to bring together representatives of employees, employers, labor organizations, the neutral sector, state and federal agencies, arbitrators, and mediators, providing a forum for all segments of the employment bar.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
