MBA statement on new BMC Chief Justice

BOSTON, Mass. — The Massachusetts Bar Association applauds the selection of Judge Roberto Ronquillo Jr. as the next chief justice of the Boston Municipal Court. Judge Ronquillo currently serves as First Justice of the BMC’s East Boston Division.

“Judge Ronquillo is well respected for his intellect, temperament and judicial acumen. He is an outstanding choice to serve as the next chief justice of the Boston Municipal Court,” said MBA Chief Operating Officer and Chief Legal Counsel Martin W. Healy. “With Judge Ronquillo’s substantial experience both in the District Court and the BMC, Chief Justice of the Trial Court Paula M. Carey’s laudable decision elevates a respected leader, who will serve as a unifying voice in the BMC.”

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
